

News from the Big Room Flock

March 11, 2022

The second week of March is over already. The girls have worked so hard. I have prayed long and hard about The Cafe for March. With the special Pi day celebration this coming Monday, March 14, all the special reading activities, the high cost of groceries, and a shortened month, we will skip opening the Cafe in March. It is just too much. I have already spoken to the girls, and I think we are all set. We will be making a run to the Library on March 16. If something should change, we can always fit cooking on this same day.

In Bible, we have started our Easter story. We have loved going back into the Old Testament and seeing where events were prophesied. I think making those connections between the Old and New Testaments is so essential. We also made our own prayer shawls.

We have completed our cursive books in all grades. Each kiddo is moving forward in their math chapters. I wish I could say they were sad to see that piece go, but I would be fibbing.

One of our favorite things to do is our free writing. They are excellent writers. We did a unit on study habits and test-taking tips in grammar and writing.

The Hostess Supper has been canceled. The girls and I are brainstorming ideas and keeping this in our prayers. If you have any fantastic fundraising ideas, don't hesitate to reach out to the Board or contact the office.

Regular spelling next week.
