

News from the Big Room Flock

January 21, 2022

Thank you for your understanding during this bizarre week. I am feeling much better. I pray this one odd week was all the Big Room will have to deal with.

When we parted ways on Friday afternoon, I believe we were all caught up and on the same page. We sailed through multiple math lessons on Thursday and Friday and played “catch-up” with all other work. I appreciate the integrity of their “at home work.” It is not perfect, but it is nice to have the option to work from home. Next, I will be better with directions and specific objectives. Hopefully, there won’t be a next time.

We continue to work on Caddie Woodlawn. She is such a brave young character with wonderful values and integrity. I feel our girls can really relate to her.

We started and will continue activities for MLK. We will look at some similarities and differences between his time and our present day time. I am anxious to hear their take on this.

We finished The 10 Commandments, up to the parting of the Red Sea on Friday. We continue to investigate the different plagues a bit deeper and complete our posters.

Please remember to encourage your kiddos to study for the spelling bee next week. It is on Tuesday at 1 PM in the Big Room, parents/visitors are welcome to attend.
